

MONUMENT IS READY FOR THE UNVEILING

CEREMONIES WILL TAKE PLACE TOMORROW.

Thousands To Participate—Governors of Many States, with Their Staffs, Regiments of Soldiers and Men Prominent in Every Walk of Life, Are Gathering.

Chicago, July 21.—Everything is ready for Logan day. A thousand railway trains are hurrying to Chicago the thousands who are eager to participate in this honoring of a patriot's memory.

Old soldiers who followed Logan from Belmont to Vicksburg and from Vicksburg to Atlanta are on the road again,

THE MONUMENT.

coming from every corner of the Union.
He was their special friend and hero, and they are eager to link their footsteps once more in cadence as they follow the life and drum past his commemorating bronze. It may be their last chance to march in honor of one of their old leaders.

The governors of half a dozen states are gathering up their staff officers and buying their tickets for Chicago. Regular army soldiers are on the move from four points of the compass. All over Illinois the national guard are polishing buttons and buckling on belts for their part in Logan day. By this evening the pavements of this city will resound with their tramp as camp grounds are sought.

The veterans of the Thirty-first Illinois, General Logan's regiment, will have the post of honor in the parade immediately behind Commander-in-Chief Clarkson, and R. N. Pearson will carry the battle flag with its 250 bullet holes. This bit of red, white and blue is so nearly destroyed it cannot be refurnished. The veterans of the Twenty-fourth and Fifty-seventh Illinois will come next.

Governor and Mrs. Tanner arrived at the Great Northern Hotel at 5 o'clock Tuesday. Governor Holcomb of Nebraska arrived this morning over the Northwestern railroad, accompanied by the members of his staff.

The committee in charge of the preliminary work of the ceremony report that everything is in readiness for the unveiling. To-day detachments of United States troops as well as battalions of the Illinois national guard are coming in on every train that enters the city. The famous regiment stationed at the Columbus barracks will arrive this evening. The battalion of the Nineteenth infantry from Fort Brady that arrived Monday evening was comfortably quartered at Washington park yesterday. They are the pioneers of the biggest camp of regulars that has been contemplated since the War of the Rebellion.

Mrs. Logan, accompanied by a party of ten, will reach the city at 9:30 tonight.

Safemakers Form a Trust.
New York, July 21.—The formation of a gigantic safemakers' combination, which will include every manufacturer in the country, is now under consideration. Overtures, it is said, have been made and favorably received by the principal safe companies to come into the proposed trust. The leaders in this movement are the Brannigans of Boston and the Moslers of Cincinnati, backed up by Eastern capitalists.

Great Britain Will Confer.
London, July 21.—The negotiations between the American bimetallic commission and the representatives of France and Great Britain have now reached a stage which renders it extremely probable that Great Britain will agree to participate in a conference to be held in Washington next fall.

Cotton Mills to Close.
Salem, Mass., July 21.—The Naum-baug Cotton Mills here have decided to close for a number of weeks, and the 2,000 operatives have been so notified.
The mills have been running on a forty-two hour per week schedule for some time. The curtailment is due to an unsatisfactory market.

De Armit's Men Will Come Out.
Pittsburg, July 21.—District Secretary Warner, in Pittsburg, declares that De Armit's men will be out within a week, in response to efforts now being made.

Jean Ingelow Is Dead.
London, July 20.—Miss Jean Ingelow, the distinguished poet and novelist, died in London last night. She was in her 77th year.

LISTEN TO BISHOP M'QUAID.

Catholic Ladies' Benevolent Association Holds Its First Session.

Chicago, July 22.—The delegates to the biennial convention of the Catholic Ladies' Benevolent Association were addressed Tuesday by Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid of Rochester, the supreme spiritual adviser of the association.

The convention was called to order by the president, Mrs. E. B. McGowan of Buffalo, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Kate Woods of Union City, Pa.
An address of welcome was then delivered by Mrs. A. J. Graham of Chicago.

The remainder of the afternoon was taken up with the reading of the president's report, which showed the organization to be in a most satisfactory condition.

After this report was adopted the reports of the supreme trustees and auditors, the supreme recorder, the supreme medical examiner and supreme legal adviser were distributed in pamphlet form.

The convention met at 9 a. m. to-day and proceeded to the consideration of 125 proposed amendments to the constitution, which work will probably consume all of today and tomorrow.
The sessions are private.

EAGER TO REACH ALASKA.

Prospective Gold Hunters Await Transportation at Victoria, B. C.

Victoria, B. C., July 21.—This city is full of prospective miners waiting for steamers to take them North.
Scores of men are throwing up good positions in order to seek their fortunes in the Klondyke gold fields.
John Piercy, a wholesale merchant, has offered to pay the Dominion government $50,000 per annum for a period of five or ten years for the privilege of collecting duty on goods going into the Canadian section of the Yukon country. The authorities have not as yet vouchsafed an answer, but it is believed that customs officers will be sent up there to collect the duty on American goods which are being taken into the country.

Canada's Great Wheat Crop.

Toronto, Ont., July 21.—If frost does not intervene Canada will have the biggest wheat crop in the history of the country. In Ontario wheat cutting has begun, and will be general in a week.
Estimates of the yield run up to forty bushels an acre. In Manitoba the seeding was two weeks earlier, and the crop, which will be ready for harvesting in about four weeks, will be subject to less danger from frost than last year.
Different districts in Manitoba report an increase in wheat acreage of from 15 to 50 per cent greater than last year, and the wheat crop will be the largest the province has ever had. The indications are that Canada will have from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels of wheat more this year for export than last year.

Dr. Herz Wants Money.

Paris, July 21.—The Figaro says that a month or two ago Dr. Cornelius Herz of Panama canal fame wrote to President Faure demanding an indemnity of 1,000,000 francs from the French government for false accusations brought against him by French officials and members of the French parliament. In the course of the letter he laid stress upon his American citizenship and asserted that he expected his claim would be energetically supported by the United States government.

France Will Build New Ships.

Paris, July 21.—The senate by a vote of 217 to 2 adopted the direct-taxes bill, and unanimously adopted the naval credit of 7,000,000 francs for commencing new warships, hastening the reconstruction of the navy and establishing a naval base at Bizerta.

The chamber voted to authorize the establishment of a lottery, with prizes aggregating 8,000,000 francs ($1,600,- 000), the proceeds to be devoted to the relief of the sufferers by the recent floods.

Grain-Shippers Elect Officers.

Sioux City, Iowa, July 21.—The Grain-Shippers' Association of Northwestern Iowa held its annual session here Tuesday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: E.
J. Edmunds, Marcus, president; E. M.
Parsons, Carroll, vice-president; F. D.
Babcock, Ida Grove, secretary and treasurer; F. D. Butler, Schaller, assistant secretary; E. A. Abbott, Charter Oak, executive committeeman.

Reports Are Not Exaggerated.

Washington, July 21.—Dr. William H. Dall, one of the curators of the National Museum, is familiar with the region of country in which the Klondyke gold fields are located, through having been on several geological expeditions to the region in Alaska, adjoining the gold districts, and says that in his opinion the reports from there probably are not exaggerated.

Gen. Wade Hampton Is Well.

San Francisco, July 21.—Gen Wade Hampton, United States commissioner of railroads, has been in this city several days engaged in making his annual inspection of the bond and land aided lines of road. His health appears to have been completely restored and he will start for the east in a few days.

Try to Kill Edhem Pasha.

Budapest, July 21.—The Pester Lloyd says that Edhem Pasha, commander in chief of the Turkish forces in Thessaly, was the recipient of an infernal machine which exploded while it was being opened, severely wounding Edhem Pasha's arm.

TO ACT AT ONCE ON TARIFF BILL

THE SENATE MAY VOTE ON MEASURE TOMORROW.

The Democrats Will Submit—They Realize That There Is No Hope of Preventing the Adoption of the Report—Little Progress Was Made on the Measure Yesterday.

Washington, July 21.—The indications when the senate adjourned Tuesday were that a vote would be reached on the conference report on the tariff bill some time during Thursday, or, at the latest, before the close of the week.
There may be a change in the conditions which will postpone a vote, but it is difficult to see what could cause it.
The opposition to the bill realize that there is no possibility of preventing the adoption of the report, and their present purpose is only to secure what advantage they can by exhibiting what they claim are the inconsistencies of the measure. At one time they had some hope of being able to secure a re-commitment of the bill, but a thorough canvass reveals no foundation for this hope. It develops the fact that the Republicans will vote solidly for the report and that they will be supported by Messrs. Jones of Nevada (silver Rep.) and McEnery of Louisiana (Dem.), and also probably Messrs. Mantle and Stewart (silver Reps.). They have also discovered that Senator Kyle (Pop.), who is absent, has left strict instructions that he should not be paired.

With the adoption of the report thus assured, the Democrats probably will not attempt to prolong the debate beyond the arrival of Mr. Turley, the new senator from Tennessee. They will continue to ask for an explanation of changes made by the conference, but these will not occupy a great deal of time.

The general opinion is that the quorum of the senate will disappear very soon after the disposal of the tariff bill, but the determination of the supporters of the Harris Pacific railroad resolutions to secure a vote upon it may delay adjournment for some days.

The tariff conference report was presented to the senate Tuesday, but little progress was made on it beyond the formal reading of about two-thirds of the report. There was no indication of when the final vote would be reached. During the day Mr. Tillman (Dem., S. C.) openly threatened a filibuster until next December if cotton bagging and cotton ties were not restored to the free list, but the threat was regarded as somewhat facetious.

Race War Is Threatened.

Birmingham, Ala., July 21.—A race war is on at Riverton, Ala., a town of 600 inhabitants, and serious results are feared. A negro attempted an assault on Mrs. S. L. Vaughn, a white woman.
Monday afternoon, but was beaten off and the neighborhood aroused. A searching party is said to have caught and lynched him, but this they will not admit. After lynching, the whites became incensed and threatened to exterminate the negroes. Both sides are arming, and one white man has been seriously injured. Mrs. Vaughn is not expected to recover.

Flood in New Hampshire.

Laconia, N. H., July 21.—A series of heavy showers visited this section late Tuesday afternoon. There was no loss of life or injury to persons in connection with the flood, but the damage to mill properties and crops in the valley will be heavy. It is estimated that fully $100,000 damage was done by the cloudburst. Upward of 600 summer tourists are on trains stalled at several points along the line waiting till the tracks can be repaired.

Working on Full Time.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 21.—The force of men in the tin department of the Burlington shops in this city have begun working ten hours a day and all employees of that company are now working full time for the first time in several years. The force has also been increased in all departments. A great rush of work necessitated the increase in hours and number of employees.

New Disease Attacks Cattle.

Atlantic, Iowa, July 21.—During the past week cattle here have been affected with a disease similar to pink eye, and local veterinary surgeons are unable to suppress it or give the disease a name. Cattle become blind within a few days. The state veterinary surgeon may be called to investigate and make a report.

Rains Damage Wheat.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 21.—Reports from Fargo, Grand Forks, Crook-ston and other Red River valley points say that too much water is falling for the good of the wheat crop. The rains in South Dakota are considered highly beneficial.

Boston to Honor Gage.

Boston, Mass., July 21.—Secretary of the Treasury Gage has accepted the invitation of seventy business men of Boston to attend a dinner given in his honor next Tuesday evening at the Hotel Tuilleries.

Await the Sultan's Signature.

London, July 21.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Post says the Turkish ministers have accepted the frontier proposals made by the European powers, but the sultan has not yet ratified their acceptance.

FAIRMONT IN DOUBT AS TO THE RESULT

UNION ORGANIZERS BUSY IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The Outcome Is Uncertain—Some Miners Quit and Others Resume Work—Gov. Atkinson Supports the Strikers—Move To Drive Illinois Men from the Pits.

Conditions in West Virginia are still doubtful. Mr. Debs' efforts in the Fairmont region have not been as effective as had been expected.

Gov. Atkinson of West Virginia says that he believes the strike will become general, and the cause of the miners is worthy of being supported.

Grand Master Sovereign of the Knights of Labor was prevented from speaking in Pocahontas, W. Va., by an order of the mayor.

Miners at Glendale, eight miles below Wheeling, have decided to strike, and Moundsville miners are said to be on the verge of striking.

District President Patrick Dolan of Pittsburg announces that national officials have decided to employ the referendum, and the miners themselves must decide by a general vote whether or not they may permit the mines to reopen in which operators are willing to pay the scale demanded.

Throughout Illinois organizers are busy, and miners are marching from one town to another inducing those still working to strike.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 21.—Tuesday morning about forty Monongah men went back to work, which gave the operators a good deal of encouragement, and they immediately announced that the efforts of Debs had resulted in failure, and that in a few days the men would again be in the mine. To offset this about twenty-five met at Palatine, who have heretofore remained at work, went out. The operators are not only straining every nerve to get the old men back, but are arranging for the importation of negro miners from Pennsylvania. If they come and attempt to take the places of the strikers there will be trouble.

ILLINOIS AGITATORS BUSY.

Miners Induced to Strike in Many Places by Crusaders.

Canton, Ill., July 21.—The miners at Dunfermline are excited over the rumors that 1,000 miners from the Peoria district will march to the Dunfermline mine. Gov. Tanner will be requested to call out Company M, Illinois National Guard, of this city, to defend the mines.

Bloomington, Ill., July 21.—The crisis in the coal-mining situation here, which was expected Tuesday, was postponed, but it is probable that it will come next Friday. After today no union men will work, and a large number of non-union men will go out with them.

Pana, Ill., July 21.—A message was received from Centralia last night, requesting that a delegation of 200 striking miners be sent immediately to Central. A freight train on the Illinois Central was boarded by the Pana miners, and they will go to Centralia to prove to the Centralia operators that the miners of their own town will come out.

O'Fallon, Ill., July 21.—All the miners here are out. One hundred and fifty men decided to strike at Monday night's meeting, and Tuesday morning the number was increased by the Bennett men, west of town.

Streator, Ill., July 21.—There is a unanimous uprising in Streator of the business class in support of the miners.
A mass-meeting was held Tuesday night in the opera house, pursuant to a call which was signed by the head of every leading business firm in the city and by the leading professional men and clergymen. Resolutions of sympathy with the miners were adopted.

Operators Deny Weakening.

Brazil, Ind., July 21.—The report that the Indiana operators contemplate offering the miners 69 cents per ton for mining coal the remainder of the year, provided they begin work at once, is denied by operators here.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 21.—The special commission sent by Governor Mount to investigate the condition of the miners spent Tuesday at the mines east of here on the Big Four road.
They found some cases of actual suffering, but the commissioners seem to believe the extreme distress is not so universal as has been commonly reported.

McKinley Asked to Mediate.

Washington, July 21.—The president Tuesday received the resolution adopted by the Pittsburg council asking him to use his good offices in the settlement of the coal strike, but has not yet sent a reply. He has also received many communications and suggestions on the subject, but it is improbable that he will take any action in the matter in the absence of some definite plan for the settlement of the strike.

Celebration at Salt Lake.

Salt Lake, Utah, July 21.—Tuesday marked the half century since the pioneers, under the leadership of mormon apostles, first entered the Salt Lake valley and founded this commonwealth. A statue of Brigham Young was unveiled.

German Paper Wants a Tariff War.

Berlin, July 21.—The German press continues to hammer at the new American tariff. The Kreuz Zeitung is the latest assailant. It publishes a long article, the plth of which is that if the bill in its final form bars German products it will be imperative for Germany to declare a tariff war. It adds that if common action can be arranged by Germany, France and the other European nations affected it would cause the Washington government to speedily yield to their protests against the imposition of practically prohibitutive duties.

Currency Message Withheld.

Washington, July 21.—It is semi-officially announced that President Mc-Kinley will withhold his currency message until after the conference report on the tariff bill has been adopted by the senate. The Republican leaders in the senate do not desire to have any new question thrown into the senate while the debate is on, lest it may lead to complications and delay. It is in deference to their wishes that the president has postponed sending the message to congress.

Their Skiff Capsized.

Salem, Ohio, July 21.—Three young people were drowned Tuesday evening at Shelton grove, a summer resort ten miles below this city. Their names are: Josie Phillips, aged 20, Salem; Mary Phillips, aged 16, Salem; Isaac Masters, Winona. They were attending the Friends' annual picnic and went out on the lake in a skiff. The boat was accidentally capsized and all were drowned. The bodies were recovered.

Cartwright Won Medal.

Winona Park, Ind., July 21.—The state W. C. T. U. conference met Tuesday. At 9 a. m. there was a temperance meeting at which addresses were made and much enthusiasm displayed.
The Woman's Club, which enjoyed such popularity last year, has been revived. At the afternoon session occurred the diamond medal contest in oratory. The medal was won by Mr.
Cartwright of Portland, Ind.

Spanish Government Warned.

Madrid, July 22.—Senator Morey Prendergast, the Liberal leader and former minister, delivered a brilliant speech at Saragossa on the Cuban question. He violently attacked the policy of the government, especially its methods of campaigning in Cuba, and declared that autonomy must be proclaimed. He dwelt impressively upon the dangers to which monarchy is exposed if it does not obey the force of public opinion.

China to Reorganize Her Army.

London, July 21.—The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent says that China is about to reorganize her army on German lines and that orders for rifles have been placed in Germany. A new Chinese fleet is to be constructed, half of the contracts for the new vessels going to England and half to Germany.
The Armstrongs will supply the guns for the new fleet.

Want the Canal Completed.

Oakland, Cal., July 21.—The people of Alameda have forwarded a memorial to congress asking that the tidal canal of Oakland harbor be completed. Work on the canal was commenced twenty years ago and almost $2,000,000 has been spent on it, but no work has been done on the canal since 1892. It is estimated that a further appropriation of $500,000 will suffice to complete the work.

MILL AT MARINETTE DESTROYED BY FIRE

DONOVAN & O'CONNORS' PLANT NOW IN RUINS.

Ned Kinney, an Employee, Who Tried To Save Some of the Tools Was Cut Off By the Flames and Fatally Burned—Loss Half Covered By Insurance.

Marinette, Wis., July 21.—[Special] —Donovan & O'Connors' mill burned early this morning. The loss is $20,- 000 and the insurance $10,000. A man named Ned Kinney was in the filling room when the fire broke out, and in trying to save some of the tools was cut off by the flames. He placed his hands before his face and rushed for the door, but fell exhausted outside.
He was terribly burned and will probably die.

Will Case Is Settled.

Racine, July 21.—[Special]—The John C. Conroe will contest, which has been dragging along in the courts for some time past, was definitely settled in the circuit court this morning.
Charles H. Carpenter was appointed special administrator, and $35,000 was left in his hands to distribute among the heirs. The attorneys' fees amounted to $18,000.

UTAH CELEBRATES.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Settlement by the Mormons.

Salt Lake City, July 21.—The people of the youngest state in the union, re-enforced by thousands of visitors from the east and south and the Pacific coast, began Tuesday a season of festivity in honor of the jubilee anniversary of the entrance of the Mormon pioneers to the valley of the Great Salt Lake.

The chief event of the day was the unveiling of the monument erected to Brigham Young. The exercises opened shortly after 10 o'clock, an immense crowd being gathered about the shaft.
The ceremonies, consisting of religious rites, music and an oration, were of an impressive character and were participated in by a number of church dignitaries and civic officials.

Of the 2,000 pioneers who entered Salt Lake valley in 1847 there were only 650 survivors. These have each been presented with a gold badge valued at $10, the work of Tiffany & Co., New York. The badge presents typical figures in the early history of Utah, including an accurate med

COUNTY IS DOTTED WITH THE PLANTS

ROCK PROCUCES MUCH BUT-TER AND CHEESE.

Growth of the Industry and the Distribution of the Factories in the State of Wisconsin, as Shown by the Map Prepared at the Experimental Station.

"The Cheese Industry, and its Development and Possibilities in Wisconsin," is the title of a bulletin just issued from the Agricultural Experiment station of the University of Wisconsin. The pamphlet is written by S. M. Babcock and H. L. Russell and includes a map showing the location of cheese factories and creameries in the different counties. A large part of the pamphlet is devoted to a general discussion of the natural and artificial conditions bearing on dairying. It says:

Rock county, as will be seen by reference to the accompanying map, is a "dairy county" as each "spot" represents a creamery or cheese factory. "The growth of the cheese industry in the United States has been in part determined by various social characteristics. Immigrants coming from cheese producing sections of Europe have often brought this industry with them. If they have settled in regions adapted by nature to cheese production, this new industry inaugurated by them has taken root and thrived in a most luxuriant way. The English settlers brought over their cheddar system and their descendants were the pioneer cheese makers of New York. From this region the cheddar method was spread by settlers to Canada and the West, particularly in Wisconsin. The Swiss immigrants in the southern part of this state introduced the manufacture of foreign cheese into the West."

The pamphlet calls attention to the value of uniformity in the manufacture of cheese and the establishment of the first special school in dairying at the university eight years ago. There have already been established similar institutions in nearly all the leading dairy states. The writer says that the cheese industry in Wisconsin developed along the lines of the distinctive American cheddar and the foreign Schwiizer, Limburger and brick varieties.

Early Cheese Making

At an early date considerable cheese was made on farms by private individuals for their own use and local consumption. These cheese were made in irregular sizes, some being larger even than those made at the present time. No uniform system of manufacture was practiced but these early pioneers, who were mainly New Yorkers, used the methods that had been familiar to them in their earlier days. In 1858-9, J. J. and Hiram Smith began the manufacture of cheese on the cooperative plan in Sheboygan county. In 1860 Chester Hazen, who was the first president of the Wisconsin Dairymen's association, erected a factory at Ladaga, near Ripon. Stephen Faville, two years later, started a cooperative factory in Jefferson county at Lake Mills, making that year 80,000 pounds, and in the following year 150,000 pounds, all of which found a market in Wisconsin and Minnesota. The factory system thus sprang up simultaneously in several sections of the state. This undoubtedly was greatly prompted by the continued failure of wheat, which at this time was the staple crop.

Development of the Factories.

The somewhat earlier development of the factory system in New York, had resulted in the manufacture of considerable quantities of cheese that found its way to the English market so that from 1871-1875 the export trade was quite large, averaging over 90,000,000 pounds per annum. Naturally the Wisconsin surplus found its way to the same market. Especially was this true after the reduction of rates and installation of refrigerator service was made, a result which was brought about mainly through the untiring efforts of W. D. Board, who represented the Wisconsin Dairymen's association. This export trade necessitated a change in methods of manufacture in order to produce a more uniform product better suited to the demand.

So far this industry was largely in the hands of native Americans, many of whom came directly from the cheese sections of the eastern states. The early factories were for the most part situated in the inland counties that were settled by this class, but as the advantage of the dairy industry came more apparent, the foreign population in the lake counties turned their activities in this direction. In 1875 Jefferson county was the leading cheese county of the state, and it is interesting to note that at the present time these inland counties have changed to the butter business, leaving the lake counties in the lead so far as the cheddar business is concerned.

Growth of Foreign Industry.

The foreign cheese industry, particularly the Swiss, was started in an independent manner by a colony that settled in Green county in 1845. Owing to the commercial depression in Europe in that year and the consequent stagnation of business that threw many persons out of employment, the canton of Glarus, Switzerland, appropriated 1,500 gulden to send representatives to America to found a colony that would relieve the congested condition at home. As a result of this a colony of 180 Swiss settled in the Sugar river valley in this state and began grain farming. From this period to 1870 the principal crop was wheat, but the decline in prices and the ravages of the chinch bug rendered a change of farming methods imperative. As early as 1854 Swiss cheese had been made for local consumption according to the methods that had been learned by these settlers in their Alpine homes. The first factory was established in 1870, and with the decline in the wheat industry the settlers were forced into "cheese or nothing." The pro-

Several Janesville people are talking of going to the gold fields, and Wisconsin is likely to be well represented on the Yukon. Milwaukee will send between twenty and thirty hunters to the newly developed fields in Alaska this fall, unless later reports indicate that the diggings are less productive than early reports indicated. A great many others have signified their intention of going in the spring, for severe cold sets in as early as October 1, and it is not possible to work the gold fields during this period. A. W. Allison To Go.

That Janesville will be represented in the gold fields before many weeks pass is very probable. A. W. Allison, who resides at 408 Court street, is the first of the local business men to signify his attention of going. Mr. Allison says that he will leave for the gold fields on the Yukon river the first of next April, preferring to wait until then on account of the severe winter which will set in throughout the Alaskan territory, beginning the first of this coming September. Gold mining under hardships is not a new venture for Mr. Allison who beginning in '64 spent fifteen years in hunting treasure in Nevada and California.

duct was of such excellent quality that it found a ready market at remunerative prices, and within five or six years the manufacture of Swiss cheese became the leading industry. As the present time it has spread beyond the limits of this colony and embraces parts of several of our southern counties. The exceptional prosperity of Green county, the home of this industry, dates from this enforced change from grain raising to dairying. The advance that she has made stands in bold relief when contrasted with the present condition of those counties that have persisted in the raising of grain.

Where Most Factories Lie.

Up to the present time the cheese industry has developed mainly in the eastern and southern parts of the state, due probably to the influence of different social factors. From a climatic standpoint there is apparently no good reason why the industry is not capable of being greatly extended. The successful operation of isolated factories in widely different portions of the state fully corroborate this idea. The recent establishment of a considerable number of factories in the vicinity of Marshfield indicates that this central belt away from the vicinity of the great lakes is also a first class cheese country.

In many ways the newly settled regions, particularly in the middle and eastern parts, possess decided advantages from a climatic standpoint over those regions in which the industry has been most successfully prosecuted in the past. The abundant supplies of clear cold water, the relatively cool nights, and the more luxuriant growth of forage grasses, all contribute to make the region by nature especially adapted to that line of farming. The lack of cows is at present the only drawback to its being the best cheese region of the Northwest. The opinion of cheese experts is almost uniformly in favor of the view that parts of Northern Wisconsin are destined to become important cheese centers. It must be remembered that restricted localities here and there are not so well suited on account of the character of the soil. In certain parts of the state, particularly in the central region, the soil is often sandy, and is naturally unsuited for the production of abundant forage crops, but in some sections this difficulty has been in part overcome by the introduction of clover.

Geographical Advantages.

Wisconsin has another advantage over New York in that there is less probability that the constantly increasing demand from urban populations for milk will divert a considerable portion of the milk yield from cheese production. Within our limits we have no large cities that consume a considerable proportion of our milk supply. Both Chicago and the twin cities of Minnesota are situated in milk

Northern railway has been the Mecca of local would-be gold miners since the reports of the Alaska discoveries were received. Enquiries are made concerning distance, rates of fare, the time required to make the trip, and what should be taken as a "kit."

What Supplies to Take.

All classes of people have shown a willingness to make their fortunes quickly and several young men who seemed to think a trip to the newly discovered wonderland an interesting adventure have got trunks containing pointers for prospectors and maps, and said they might go in the spring. One man wanted to know what kind of board he would get, and how much it would cost him, and he said he would think it over, when informed that he could get none of the luxuries of a boarding house. It is necessary for each one who goes to this district to take along absolutely everything he may need, for though it is possible to accumulate a great deal of gold, it is impossible to buy anything with it within hundreds of miles of the gold fields.

Food and Tools.

The man asking advice regarding a trip to the gold fields is told that the provisions for one month should include about twenty pounds of flour, one pound of baking powder, twelve pounds of bacon, six pounds of beans, five pounds each of dried fruits, sugar and of corn meal; three pounds each of dehydrated vegetables, coffee and oatmeal, besides salt, rice, pepper, matches, tea and condensed milk. A frying pan, water kettle, tent, stove, rubber and cloth blankets, plates, drinking cup, knife and fork, cooking pan, planes, whip saw, hand saw, rip saw, ax, hatchet, pocket rule, several pounds of assorted nails, oakum, pitch, and fifty feet of rope are absolutely necessary, besides a varied assortment of clothing suitable for the roughest work and weather.

Cost of the Trip

A prospector leaving Milwaukee must have at least $500 with which to purchase his outfit, and before he starts he is frankly informed by the railroad official that only men with the hardest constitutions can live in the gold region. In the Yukon district the thermometer has a range of 70 degrees below to 110 degrees above zero, besides other varied peculiarities of climate that are very trying to any constitution.

The freight charges from Milwaukee to the coast are $2.40 for each 100 pounds. The passenger rates are $49.70 to the coast. This part of the trip takes four days. From Juneau to Seattle takes four days more, and after that the prospector makes his way as best he may over 900 miles of territory to Circle City and Forty Mile creek. The transportation charges alone amount to about $200 to Juneau. The best season of the year to start, the would-be gold seeker is told, is in Winsor Cereal manufacturers. The McMillin-Winsor Coffee Company, makers of the new beverage have had a skilled demonstrator, A. J. Proctor, at work in Illinois and Wisconsin for a month. In Waukegan he used the daily papers and drew crowds. Then the firm told him to use circulars, mailed to customers of all the grocers. He had been trying that plan for a week before he came to Janesville. Theoretically the plan was good. It saved money, and it should have reached every family in the city. But the crowds didn't come.

Either they hadn't read the circulars or they didn't believe much about goods that were advertised in such a half-hearted way. Without saying anything to the firm he put locals in the daily papers. His departure was justified by results. He did more business than in any three towns since leaving Waukegan. And he wrote to the house: "If I am expected to sell goods, newspaper advertising must be used instead of circulars."

CARS CARRY 3,540 CIRCUS DAY

Ringlings' Crowd Did Not Equal "Buffalo Bill Day" Receipts.

The receipts of the street car company on circus day were far from being what they were on "Buffalo Bill day" a year ago. On last Friday the number of passengers carried from morning until night was 3,540, while on Buffalo Bill day this number was nearly doubled. Competition this year was strong, but if the new street cars had been in running order, the number of passengers carried would have come nearer the 5,000 mark.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

That Common Troubles, Acid Dyspepsia or Sour Stomach.

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to promptly digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas, and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. This condition soon becomes chronic and being an every day occurrence is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is now becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. It is prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time is perfectly harmless and does not injure the most delicate stomach, but on the contrary by giving perfect digestion strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living. CHEESE FACTORIES IN ROCK.

producing districts that are abundantly able to supply for many years to come, all demands for milk. For this reason the dairy industry of Wisconsin is as a whole forced to turn its energy into butter and cheese production, and we should strive to make a reputation second to none on these products. New York, our chief competitor, on the other hand, is reaching its maximum limit of production as a cheese state. The relative development of its milk-producing and milk-consuming population will constantly tend to divert more of its milk product into channels other than butter and cheese. The possibility, therefore, of greater future development of the cheese industry in Wisconsin makes it probable that an increased demand must look to this region for its supply. Already Wisconsin stands second in importance as a cheese state, its present product compared to that of the remainder of the United States being represented by the accompanying figure.

Legal Advantages.

Wisconsin's reputation for cheese in the world's market was once a proud one. Her products commanded the highest price and her export trade was rapidly increasing. In the flush of her success, some were not satisfied with legitimate profits and began to pass the manufacturer of inferior (skim) and spurious (dilled) products, not hesitating to sell them as first quality on the basis of the state's reputation. The inevitable consequence was that her brands were soon discredited so that the whole industry received a set back from which it has not yet fully recovered. The necessity of restrictive legislation was so apparent that following the lead of New York and Canada, laws were enacted that prohibited the manufacture and sale of fraudulent goods. The rigid enforcement of these prohibitory measures drove the dilled cheese business from our borders and with a growing recognition of this fact, a new impulse has been given to our trade, and for the first time in several years Wisconsin looks on a brighter horizon.

WESTERN UNION STUBBORN.

It Pays No Attention To Milwaukee Fire Insurance Agents.

Secretary J. O. Myers of the Milwaukee board of fire underwriters was in Chicago yesterday in conference with Secretary Dudley of the governing committee of the Western union. Mr. Myers was told that the governing committee's intention is to force the new schedule upon the Milwaukee board and that the local agents might as well fall in line.

The situation remains unchanged in Milwaukee, and there is still a manifest inclination on the part of the local agents to ignore the authority of the governing committee. The three Milwaukee companies insist that if the reductions are made on preferred class of risks, they will make the reductions apply on all classes of business. All the efforts of the local agents are directed toward the three local companies and it is hoped that some agreement with them can be reached that will save the Milwaukee board from disruption.

THE MONONA LAKE ASSEMBLY

Eighteenth Annual Encampment Begins With Many In Attendance.

The eighteenth annual encampment of the Monona Lake assembly, opened at Lakeside yesterday, to continue ten days. The former opening services were held in the tabernacle last night. The annual address was delivered by President W. S. Main and Rev. G. W. Case and others spoke words of greetings to the many Chautauquans. The afternoon was devoted to the organization of a teachers' normal class, A. W. C. T. U. school of methods and a juvenile normal class. These classes hold their first meetings today. Professor Thomas H. Denmore gave the first of his series of three scientific lectures today and in the evening Rev. Sam P. Jones will lecture on "Money and Manhood." Several hundred campers are now on the grounds.

THE BRAKEMAN'S DILEMMA

What to Do With the Troublesome Tramps.

In view of the fact that a brakeman has been severely censured by a coroner's jury for ejecting from a train a tramp subsequently found dead, the question is raised, "What are railroad men to do with tramps?"

"An official says that the country just now is full of tramps. They board trains, break into cars, are defiant and insolent. Inside a car they show fight. Many of them are armed. Many of them are thugs who are dangerous and vicious men. They care little for human life. The brakeman who meets one on a train is likely to be knocked off with a coupling pin, stabbed or shot. Within a few months there have been desperate encounters between these vagrants and the railroad men, who are striving to protect the trains in their charge. The problem for the railroad man is a grave one. It is an ugly fact that confronts him—is this desperado tramp. Whether the man in question was knocked off the train or not, we don't know; but we do know that if a brakeman on that train had found half a dozen tramps in a car and tried to eject them he would have been roughly used and perhaps killed. There are two sides to the question.

LIABLE FOR ALL ITS DEBTS.

Members of the Wisconsin Agricultural Society Alarmed.

It is learned that the state agricultural society is not incorporated, the act of incorporation having been repealed in 1895, six years after the society was incorporated. The records of the society and the annual reports have never a word about the repeal. All the life members are personally liable for the debts of the society.

It is not a pleasant prospect to contemplate, as there are several matters which may prove troublesome in the future. One of these is the matter of improvements which have been made at the state fair park by the State Fair Jockey Club, and a portion of which at least the association will be liable for under the lease.

THEY DRIVE HIM TO SUICIDE

Note From "Yonkers Tom" Found in a Bottle in Lake Monona

A dispatch from Madison says: John Schott found a bottle floating in Lake Monona, near the boat landing, this morning. It was securely corked and inside was a scrap of paper on which was written the following in pencil:

"I have been driven to this by the Chicago police, to commit suicide by drowning myself. Finder notify M. Flannigan, Twenty-first street and Union avenue. The police try to convict me for innocent charges. God help anyone Chicago police persecute. Tom Lyons (Yonkers Tom)."

The matter has been placed in the hands of the police and an investigation will be made. The local officers know "Yonkers Tom" It is not thought that he committed suicide.

Teachers' Institute and Examinations.

Second Superintendent District, Rock County Wis.—The annual Normal Institute will be held in the High school room, at Milton Junction, August 9-13. Prof. George Shuts and Miss Cornelia Rogers of the Whitewater Normal school, and Prof. H. C. Buell of the Janesville High school, will be the conductors. It is expected that President L. D. Coke Drawers with Them.

Pittsburg, July 21.—Reports from the Connellsville coke region say that very little coal is being shipped from that region. The miners there have been receiving better pay for over a year than any other similar class of labor in the United States. The sympathy of the coke drawers and coal miners is with the bituminous coal miners in their strike, but they say a suspension of work by them would in no way benefit the striking miners' cause.

Restful Nights, Days' Free from Torture.

Await the rheumatic sufferer who resorts to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That this benignant cordial and purgative is a far more reliable remedy than colic, and other poisons used to expel the rheumatic virus from the blood, is a fact that experience has satisfactorily demonstrated. It also enjoys the advantage of being unlike them—perfectly safe. With many persons a certain predisposition to rheumatism exists, which renders them liable to attacks after exposure to wet weather, to currents of air, changes of temperature, or to cold when the body is hot. Such persons should take a wine glass or two of the Bitters as soon as possible after incurring risk from the above causes, as this superb protective effectually nullifies the harmful influence. For the functional derangements which accompany rheumatism, such as colic, spasms in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, imperfect digestion, etc., the Bitters is also a most useful remedy. It is only necessary in obstinate cases to use it with persistence.

CAUGHT A BURGLAR IN THE VERY ACT

OFFICER JOHN BROWN DOES GOOD WORK.

He Captures His Man After a Chase at 5 o'clock This Morning—Prisoner Pleads Guilty and Goes To Waupun For a Year's Sojourn on the Noon Train

Officer John Brown did a clever piece of work this morning, when he caught Albert Bear, a burglar, after a hard race over fences and through back yards, finally cornering his man in one of the box stalls in Henry D.
McKinney's barn, for that Bear is a smooth crook there can be no doubt.

The authorities got "quick action" in Bear's case, and although he was arrested this morning, he went to Waupun for one year, on the noon train today.

About 5 o'clock this morning, Bear visited the Richardson & Rexford flats on Court street. Wrapping a stone the size of a hen's egg in a newspaper, he twisted the edges of the paper together, making a sort of slung shot.
One blow with this novel appliance broke a round hole through the pane of glass in a window in E. J. Thiele's flat, the break being as clean as if the hole had been cut with a diamond.

The stone being padded by the paper, made no noise to speak of, and the hole was large enough so that Bear could insert his hand, and open the catch to the window.

Was As Cool As a Cucumber.
About this time Bear saw J. M.
Bostwick coming down the street, so he turned about, walked out of the gate onto Court street just ahead of Mr. Bostwick, as unconcerned as though he owned the property. He let Mr. Bostwick pass him further down the street. Then he turned around and retraced his steps.

In the mean time Mr. Edwards, the fruit dealer, had come down town barefooted, for an officer. He met Officer Brown near the Myers house corner, and when they reached Bluff street, on Milwaukee, they saw Bear at the corner of Bluff and Court streets, going up the hill. Edwards had told Officer Brown of the proceedings up to date, and the officer at once surmised that Bear, having decided that Mr. Bostwick had not seen him break the window, was going back to rob the house. In this conclusion he was correct. Officer Brown told Edwards not to say anything to Bear, and by keeping behind him and on the parallel street, they would be able to catch him "red-handed." Accordingly, they walked up Milwaukee street street while Bear went up Court street.

Was in the House.

Cautioning Edwards to keep still, Officer Brown quietly made his way around the building to the broken window. The casement was up, and Bear was in the house. Officer Brown looked in the window, but Bear was not in sight. Just then Edwards called, "Come out," and Bear knew that he had been seen. He bolted for the back door, and escaped before Edwards, who was ordered to guard the rear entrance, could intercept him. Edwards called to Officer Brown that Bear had escaped, and the officer came around to the back door. Brown knew that Bear would not take to the street, as he would be seen, and just as he was wondering which back yard Bear had bolted through, he saw a coat tail disappear through a door of H. D.
McKinney's stable, the burglar having vaulted over the intervening fence.
Mr. McKinney was in the barn and told the officers he thought Bear had hidden in a box stall, so Brown opened the door and stepped in.

Caught His Man

Bear was crouching in a dark corner of the stall, and did not move.
Officer Brown laid hold of him, and raised him up. Bear was sullen.
"You took some chances in coming in here in the dark to get me," he declared in a sinister tone of voice.
"You wouldn't kill a man under these circumstances would you?" Officer Brown asked.
"Oh, no; I guess not," replied Bear in a tone of voice that indicated that things might have been different if he had been armed.

Bear realized that he had been trapped. When Officer Brown took a firm grip on his arm, Bear complained, and wanted the officer to take hold of his coat sleeve. Officer Brown, however, did not want the coat; he wanted Bear; and told Bear that he would not get a chance to slip out of the garment and "run for it." When he saw that he could not get away, Bear weakened and went to jail quietly.

Admitted His Offense.

Bear said on the way to jail that he was out of money, and had no work, and that he thought he "could make a few dollars." People residing near the park said Bear slept in the park last night, and was about there all day yesterday. He had talked with the children he met, and evidently knew that Mr. and Mrs. Thiele were away from home.

He got no plunder at the flat, however, except four salt cellars, which he dropped as he ran. Later Officer Brown got these, and the stone, to be used as evidence.

Bear would not talk about himself, and refused to give his name. That Bear is not his name is evident, as when he signed papers in the municipal court he wrote the "Albert" all right," but started to write another name after it before he thought. None of the police knew him, but they are confident that he knew what he was

Mrs. Loney Aldrich, one of the seven surviving widows of the revolution, died here today aged ninety-eight years.

THESE STOOD AT THE ALTAR

Correll-Boyes.

Miss Clara Boyes, of this city, and Bert Correll of Froelich, Iowa, were quietly married at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyes, 157 Glen street. Rev. H. W. Thompson, pastor of the First M. E. church, officiated. The wedding was unostentatious.
The bride couple, attended by Robert J. Boyes and Miss Emma J.
Boyes, brother and sister of the bride, took their places under an arch of evergreens and ferns, and the nuptial knot was tied. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served, and at 4:40 o'clock the happy couple left for Iowa, where they will make their home.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyes, and has always made Janesville her home. She is a most estimable young lady. The groom is the agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road at Froelich, and is an exemplary young man.

MAN WITH A BIBLE BEATS BOARD BILL

LANDLORD SWEENEY HAD
"SLAGLENESS OF EYE"

Consequently, Landlord Heldenbrand, of Beloit, Was Able to Collect What Was Due Him From James Pretty-man, Whose Description Tallied With Notices Sent Out.

Landlord J. F. Sweeney's good memory resulted in the arrest of a man alleged to be a hotel dead beat, yesterday afternoon, and incidentally demonstrated that all men who carry bibles may not be saints.

When Charles Prittman of Chicago, walked into the office of the Grand Hotel yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and registered, it was no doubt his intention to remain a few days, like enough, it is thought, at Landlord Sweeney's expense.

A moment later, however, Prittman was placed under arrest by Chief Hogan, charged with "jumping" his bill at the Goodwin Hotel at Beloit, and a hurried telephone message to Landlord Heldenbrand resulted in the head clerk coming to this city last evening, and the identification of the prisoner as the man wanted.
Prittman did not deny the charge and returned to Beloit to settle the matter, claiming it was "all a mistake."

Of late numerous notices have been received by hotel keepers in this part of the state notifying them to look out for a stranger about five feet ten inches in height with grayish hair and a mustache, and about fifty years of age.

Forgot to Settle

His great fault, it was said, was his loss of memory when it came to settling a hotel bill. What business he was in no one seemed to know as he said but little about his affairs.
Among those in this city to receive one of these notices was Landlord Sweeney. He carefully read it over and made up his mind that if the man tried his little game here it would be a sorry day for him.

Prittman came in on the late afternoon train from the south yesterday and at once was driven to the hotel.
As he stepped out of the bus Landlord Sweeney noticed that he answered the description of the "board bill jumper." Chief Hogan was notified and the man questioned. Although at first he denied the charges, he confessed when the Goodwin house clerk appeared on the scene.
The prisoner carried a small grip that contained several dozen letters and a bible. Prittman said last evening that he was very sorry that such a thing happened and that in the future he would be more careful.

WILLITZ GOES TO ASHLAND

The Telephone Manager Hopes Climate Will Be More Beneficial.

H. C. Willitz, the former manager of the local telephone exchange, will leave this week for Ashland, where he will have charge of the lines in that city as well as in the adjoining towns.
Orders came last evening from Milwaukee, making the change, so Manager Sater will remain here.

Ill health has prevented Mr. Willitz from accepting charge of the Milwaukee exchange, and on the advice of his physician he will go to Ashland in place of the Cream City. The Ashland office is considered one of the best paying exchanges in the state, on account of its taking in so vast a territory. The numerous friends of Mr.
Willitz will extend hearty congratulations on his appointment to the position, and trust that the change will be of benefit.

REV. R. J. ROCHE A DELEGATE

Will Represent The Local Foresters At the State Convention.

Rev. R. J. Roche, pastor of St.
Mary's church, will represent the local Catholic Order of Foresters at the state convention to be held in Green Bay beginning with August 31.
Delegates from all sections of the state will be attendance and it is expected that the coming meet will be one of the most successful in the history of the order. The business sessions of the convention will be held in St. Patrick's hall and presided over by Mr. Allen, while the religious services have been planned for the cathedral where Bishop Messmer will officiate. Eighty delegates are expected and the much mooted question of a reserve fund will come under discussion.

THE CASES HEARD IN CIRCUIT COURT

DAY'S PROCEEDINGS BEFORE JUDGE BENNETT.

Mrs. Edna B. Ross Wants Pay For Services Rendered In Taking Care of Her Insane Sister, Mrs. George A. Cunningham—Saloon Fixtures Are Cause of Dispute.

Edna B. Ross of Sioux City, Iowa, today petitioned the circuit court of Rock county, to order $600 paid to her for services rendered by her in caring for her sister, Mrs. George A. Cunningham, during the time that the latter was insane.

The case is that of Edna B. Ross vs.
George A. Cunningham, and by consent of parties it was continued until July 24, at 9 a. m. Mrs. Cunningham was formerly a resident of this city.
Some time ago she became insane, but rather than place her in a public hospital, her sister Mrs. Ross, was secured to care for her. Accordingly, Mrs. Cunningham went to Sioux Falls, where she remained about a year, being constantly in Mrs.
Ross' care. Mrs. Ross, it is said, was paid, but asks for a balance on the account. H. S. Sloan, as referee, heard the case some time ago and awarded the plaintiff, $600. The hearing of the case today was for the purpose of passing upon the referee's decision.

Saloon Fixtures At Stake.

The fixtures of the Toole & Brennan saloon was the property in dispute in the circuit court this morning, when the case of C. C. Gray et al. vs. W. H.
Appley et al. was heard. The action grew out of the seizure of the saloon fixtures of the former Army block saloon that were taken a year ago the thirtieth of last June, on an execution issued in favor of the Herman Nathan and the Delany & Murphy whiskey firms of Chicago. C. C. Gray and Adam Holt, of this city, now come forward and claim that the stock and fixtures belong to them, as they hold a first mortgage against the same. W.
H. Appley is the defendant in the case, in that he served the papers at the time as sheriff of the county.

Judgment Was Ordered.

In the foreclosure case of Jane McLay vs. Anna Snyder, the court ordered judgment in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $4,453.33 damages with costs to be taxed, the defendant to have until March, 1898, to redeem said premises.

SHE GAVE A CHARMING TEA.

Miss Josephine Carle Entertained Most Delightfully Last Evening.

Seventeen ladies were the guests of Miss Josephine Carle last evening, at a most charming six o'clock tea given at her St. Lawrence Place home.
Sweet peas and ferns were used in beautifying the rooms, and the small tables at which tea was served, were decorated in pink. Those present were:

NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON.

Embroidered Kid Belts—Flower Capotes.
Mitts to Be Again Worn.

In some of the most elegant costumes of the season the bodice differs from the skirt in material, although it agrees in color. The further summer advances the more corages are there of gauze, mousseline de sole, linen and embroidered tulle over silk. Kid belts embroidered and ornamented in various ways and fastened by a buckle are in great demand. They are worn with tailor made gowns and shirt waists.

Small capotes made entirely of flowers, with a bow of ribbon or an aigret of foliage are much seen this summer. There are capotes of straw, either open work or embroidered or spangled. Roses and peepies are employed as trimming, but not so many violets as formerly, these last named flowers having been well nigh done to death in the service.

Beige and gray are the favorite colors for bicycle costumes, as they do not show dust or mud as plainly as other tints. Bright toned shirt waists, neckties and hats are often seen for wheeling wear, but they are not in as good taste as quiet colors.

White gloves are still worn, but suede, putty color, pearl gray and palest tan are also liked—in fact, all very light mode colors.

A black silk gown is in France considered an indispensable part of the wardrobe. It need not necessarily be elaborate, but is very useful for a variety of occasions.

Gowns of white, pink or blue pique are embroidered or braided around the foot of the skirt, the revers of the jacket, the collar and the cuffs.

Mitts are being revived in Paris. They are of black chintilly or white lace and are a hand covering that displays the rings to advantage.

The sketch given today illustrates a bodice of changeable moire of green and pink tones. It is plain at the back and draped across the front, fastening on the left side under three bows of green satin. The plain sleeves have a slight fullness at the top and a green bow at the shoulder, a frill of moire appearing at the wrist and above the collar, bordered with narrow green satin ribbon. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE SLEEVE OF THE PERIOD.

It Is Light Nearly to the Top—Checked Bicycle Costume.

The sleeve prevailing at present is so different from that of last year that for old bodices new sleeves are a necessity or a rearrangement of the original ones. Whatever is the exterior form of the sleeve, the lining must always consist of two pieces and be close fitting, as it is the lining which keeps the sleeve in form. To be sure, there are certain sleeves which are made without a lining, as the sleeves of outside garments, but fanciful or draped ones always require a plain, close foundation.

The mode of today prescribes that the sleeve shall be very tight except just at the top, where a slight fullness shall appear, either a part of the sleeve itself or as a separate puff or drapery. Two or three ruffles, a butterfly bow or a full epaulet of some kind is the variety of adornment most seen on summer gowns. If the trimming is separate, as is the case with these decorations, the outside is cut exactly like the lining.

There are many styles for the making of new sleeves, puffs crosswise or lengthwise of the entire arm being a favorite method for thin goods. This style is only suitable for slender arms. Sometimes the puffs are plain; sometimes they are made with an erect heading between them, obtained by folding the goods and gathering them double.

The illustration shows a bicycle costume having a short skirt of brown and white checked wool goods. It is laid in large plaits all the way around and is mounted on a pointed waistband. The eon jacket is of white pique, made with plain sleeves and wide collar and revers, finished with stitching and trimmed with large pearl buttons. The shirt waist of pink cambric is stiffly starched, and a white collar and black satin scarf are worn. The boots are of yellow leather, with black patent leather trimmings. The sailor hat is of beige straw, with a brown band and quills. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Two Missouri Decisions.

In Missouri two important decisions have been rendered during the past six months by the supreme court of that state, one affirming the election of Wheeler's election as county clerk of the Clair county, the other affirming the competency of the county board of education. In the case of the county board of education, the court ruled that a clerk must be a "citizen" and that a citizen may be either a native-born citizen or a naturalized citizen. Consequently, in the absence of statute to the contrary, a woman is eligible in Missouri to any county office. In fact, under this ruling, it is claimed that a woman might be a judge of the supreme court of the state.

In Missouri, however, it is also decided that a woman cannot be a member of the board of education. Mrs. McSpadden was recently elected to that position in Piedmont, Wayne county. Proceedings to oust her were begun, and the court held that she could not hold the office because the statutes provide that a school director must have the qualifications of a voter, be a male citizen, and be 21 years of age. As Mrs. McSpadden lacked two of these qualifications she is ousted from office.

The artificial and irrational character of the legal obstacles which debar women from equal personal and political rights is strikingly shown by these two decisions made in the same state by the same court in the same year. All depends upon the arbitrary and possibly accidental phraseology of a statute. Thus in Missouri today a woman cannot be an elected member of a county board of education, yet she may sit upon the supreme bench and render a decision on the question of another woman's competency to fill that or any other position.—Woman's Journal.

Costumes of Red.

Gowns entirely red in color have always appeared too aggressive to be in good taste, says a New York fashion writer, but fashion has this year so persistently favored red in every guise that many maids and matrons, yielding to her domination, have donned the color who never thought of using it before, at least only in touches for relief to black or subdued browns, greens, grays, etc. At all the fashionable summer resorts it has high place. Red toilets, costumes, jackets, capes, parasols, fancy waists, teagowns, belts and even gloves and shoes are displayed. In fact, red from the deepest damask and ruby on through the brilliant list to geranium, lobelia, cardinal, coral and carnation, is triumphant this jubilee year.

If any gown of the color could reconcile one to a red dress, it would be one recently worn to a late afternoon tea. It was an Italian red foulard, with a creamy white design straggling over the surface in very delicate devices. There was a little pointed yoke of white silk, below which the front of the corsege was full, drawn to a point, and pouching slightly over the belt. The waist fastened on the left shoulder, and a frill of creamy white lace, narrowing greatly from the shoulder to the waist, concealed the fastening. The close sleeves were finished with white silk turn back cuffs. Very pretty was a blue satin foulard also patterned with white, similarly made, and decidedly the choice of the two gowns worn by sisters exactly opposite in type, the elder, smaller blond one oddly wearing the gay red gown, the tall, slender brunette the blue.

How to Make Tea Punch.

To make tea punch, as directed in a lesson in one of the Pratt institute courses, reported in the New York Times, take the juice of 3 lemons, 3 oranges, a pineapple shredded from the core with a silver fork, a box of strawberries, whole, or, if large, cut in half; or canned strawberries may be used, or they may be omitted altogether; a tablespoonful Ceylon tea, a quart boiling water. Pour water on tea and let it stand 15 minutes.

To the different fruit ingredients add a pint or a cup of sugar, according to acidity, and let stand one-half hour. Let the tea stand until cold, then put all together; add a quart apollinaris water and a large block of ice. The pulp of the orange as well as the shredded pineapple is left in the punch. Thin slices of lemon can be used if desired, and one placed in each glass as the punch is served. Canned pineapple may be used, but it is necessary then to lessen the quantity of sugar.

For cold Russian tea, take 4 teaspoonfuls of tea, 4 cups boiling water, 4 slices lemon. Some people prefer the tea stronger, and 2 teaspoonfuls of tea may be used for each cup of water; 1 or 2 blocks of sugar may be used. To serve, the glass must be filled three-quarters full of cracked ice; a slice of lemon is placed on top, and the hot tea is poured over the whole.

Mrs. Ella H. Eddy.

Mrs. Ella H. Eddy is founder, owner and manager of one of the most successful manufacturing plants in Worcester, Mass. She manufactures fine overgaiters and leggings, lamb's wool soles and machine buttonholes in shoes and clothing and has a trade in these several productions extending as far west as Minnesota and south to Alabama and Florida. She employs her own salesmen, who cover every important trade center in the country. Bicycle, riding and hunting leggings and overgaiters for men and women are made in especially large quantities. She has a large machinery equipment and some 20 employees.

How to Make Fly Paper.

An English druggist, it is reported, has recently secured a patent on fly paper made as follows: Take pyrethrum roseum; cover with water in suitable vessel, close and gradually bring to a boil, keeping it there long enough to extract the poisonous principle. About half an hour will do. Let cool and then strain. Soak thick paper with it and let it dry. Pyrethrum, also called Persian insect powder, is on sale at drug stores and elsewhere.

Reason's Why Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the Best.

1. Because it affords almost instant relief in case of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus.
2. Because it is the only remedy that never fails in the most severe cases of dysentery and diarrhoea.
3. Because it is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea.
4. Because it is the only remedy that will prevent bilious colic.
5. Because it is the only remedy that will cure epidemic dysentery.
6. Because it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon in cases of cholera infantum.
7. Because it is the most prompt and most reliable medicine in use for bowel complaints.
8. Because it produces no bad results.
9. Because it is pleasant and safe to take.
10. Because it has saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in the world. The 25 and 50c sizes for sale at C. D. Stevens' pharmacy, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

DEMAND FOR AMERICAN WHEAT

Reasons Why There Is a Good Market in Australia.

The reason why so large a quantity of American wheat was imported into Australia last year is explained by Daniel W. Maratta, United States consul-general at Melbourne, says the New York Times. It appears that wool-growing is regarded by Australians as much the most important industry, and in pursuing that the Australian farmer is often led to neglect the cultivation of wheat. As a rule, the larger "squatters," or ranchmen, do not care to devote their time to farming, preferring to give all of their attention to sheep raising. "The consumption of wheat in this colony," writes Consul Maratta, "is at the rate of six bushels to the acre, and as the crop of last year only yielded four and two-tenths bushels to the acre, it will readily be seen that the colonists were short of their requirements nearly two bushels to the acre. To meet this deficiency, the first for a great many years, large imports were made from the United States. These shipments were made from San Francisco, with the exception of one or two vessels from New York." It is becoming a common custom among Australian ranchmen to rent their land for wheat-growing on shares, the ranchmen furnishing the land and the seed and some neighboring farmer doing all the work. As the wool-growing industry, however, is constantly tending to crowd out the wheat cultivation, there is a prospect that increased demands upon America for wheat supplies will be made in the future. Mr. Maratta says: "It has been wondered how it is that Australia can produce wool, and, for that matter, sheep, so much more cheaply than America, and the answer, too, is very simple. First, the advantage lies in the climate. Here you have a climate where the sheep can and do safely spend every night during the year in the open air and without covering. Then the pasturage is unlimited and virtually free. The cost of labor is cheaper than with us, and station living is cheaper, and all these things combine to cheapen the animal. You can purchase at a retail butcher's here in Melbourne prime lamb and mutton at from 5 to 6 cents per pound."

STATESMEN ON A LARK.

Lord Randolph Churchill's Sprint Across Westminster Bridge.

One night while Lord Randolph Churchill was conversing with several friends in the cafe attached to the house a question arose as to the time it would take a pedestrian to cross Westminster Bridge. Different opinions were expressed, but no two of the disputants were able to agree. At length Lord Randolph, who had been a silent auditor of the discussion, offered to wager that he could cross from the Middlesex to the Surrey side of the bridge while "Big Ben," the great bell in the clock tower of the parliament buildings was striking the four quarters and the hour of 12. The wager was accepted by one of the members of the company, and it was arranged that at the hour named witnesses should be stationed at each end of the bridge to watch the performance, says a correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

A few minutes before midnight a select party of well known statesmen was seen to emerge from a little door near the speaker's quarters in the parliament buildings and stalk sedately across the bridge. At the farther end the party paused, and was soon surrounded by a curious throng. Several other distinguished legislators soon afterward appeared and politely requested passersby to keep to the left.

Just as "Big Ben" began to strike the first quarter the lithe figure of a man, wearing a top hat, a frock suit and white spats, was seen to leap out of a little group of men on the Middlesex side. Some waggish friend raised the cry of "Stop thief," and in a jiffy half a score of wondering men and boys were fast on the heels of the doughty sprinter. A policeman hearing the cry and observing the fleeing man, started in pursuit.

As "Big Ben" continued the clang, the pace grew hotter and hotter. One by one, the pursuers began to fall away, but the big policeman hung grimly to his task. When the center of the bridge was reached the quarters had been rung and the great bell had already begun to strike the hour. A cheer arose from the watchers on the Surrey side, and Lord Randolph, who had until now been running up an incline, now had the descent in his favor. A few moments later the panting policeman came upon his man, surrounded by admiring friends.

"What's up?" stuttered the breathless and bewildered "bobby."

"Two strokes to spare," puffed the victorious Lord Randolph.

The officer stared, blushed, apologized, wiped his brow and went his way.

Non-union Men in Demand.

What Will McKinley Do?

Washington, July 21.—The senate passed the joint resolution empowering the president to take steps for the release of Ona Melton and other Competitor prisoners held by Spain.

Wants to Know.

Meantime, where is all the finance legislation which Mr. McKinley talked about so persuasively and earnestly some months ago?

A Record Breaking

Wash Goods Sale...

All the season we have been telling you that Wash Goods were never cheaper, and it was a fact, for we made some very fortunate purchases, and were able to name some astonishingly low prices. Now prices have gone still lower, for mill agents and jobbers have been offering their remaining stock at half and third early season prices: As is usual when there is a good thing to be had, we got in on it; and today offer several remarkable Wash Goods. If you do not pay more than five cents a yard it will buy a dainty fabric which ordinarily retails at ten cents, and all other prices will obtain equally desirable values.

FIRST is twenty-five pieces "Lotus Lawns," all white grounds, with neat figures, (these are not short lengths, nor end of stock, but are fresh new goods in full pieces) all you want of them, per yard--3 cents.

SECOND--Dimities in stripes, figures, scroll patterns, &c; all the desirable colorings; fifty pieces to select from. All on the counters, per yard--5 cents.

THIRD--150 pieces of the season's chicest wash fabrics, that have been retailed at 12 1/2 and 15c. Organdies and dimities, light and dark grounds; many that you have not seen before this season. They are all, per yard--7 1/2 cents.

Don't Forget the Shirt Waists....

The great sale is still going on, and we are today showing more new Shirt Waists than you have seen in other stores at any time this season. The pick of the line at the town talk prices. 39 & 59c
